

Assignment: Exercise 1-5

Directions: Rewrite each sentence and label each adverb with a ADV.

1. Suddenly the sky became very dark, the wind blew wildly, and the rain hurriedly began.
2. When the ingredients are thoroughly mixed, very carefully pour the mixture into the well-greased pans.
3. She stared gloomily out the window, fully convinced that the snow would not begin soon enough.
4. I will never tell you a secret again, for you betrayed my trust so very eagerly!