

BOOK I UNIT ONE QUIZNAME: _____I. Definitions

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. a feeling of love or liking
A. affection
B. facsimile
C. deficient
D. suffice
E. petrify | 7. a copy; an imitation
A. coagulate
B. petrify
C. facsimile
D. deficient
E. inoperable | 13. a list of things to do
A. transact
B. inoperable
C. operational
D. agenda
E. facsimile |
| 2. to solidify; to clump or clot
A. inoperable
B. operational
C. affection
D. agenda
E. coagulate | 8. to carry out
A. transact
B. inoperable
C. cooperate
D. coagulate
E. agenda | |
| 3. something that goes wrong; problem
A. affection
B. malfunction
C. suffice
D. cooperate
E. transact | 9. not having enough; lacking
A. suffice
B. petrify
C. deficient
D. affection
E. malfunction | |
| 4. not able to be fixed or cured
A. defunct
B. affection
C. petrify
D. cooperate
E. suffice | 10. in working order
A. suffice
B. facsimile
C. defunct
D. petrify
E. operational | |
| 5. to be enough
A. malfunction
B. petrify
C. affection
D. suffice
E. agenda | 11. to scare; to frighten
A. affection
B. petrify
C. cooperate
D. defunct
E. affection | |
| 6. to work with; to be helpful to
A. malfunction
B. operational
C. defunct
D. cooperate
E. transaction | 12. no longer working; no longer active
A. malfunction
B. defunct
C. transact
D. agenda
E. petrify | |

II. Sentence Completion

14. Carl had been ____ of dogs ever since he was a young boy because his neighbor's guard dog had attacked him.
- A. transact
 - B. petrified
 - C. suffice
 - D. inoperable
 - E. malfunction
15. The submarine was now completely _____. The experts had removed all the old, useless, _____ wiring from the entire ship.
- A. operational; defunct
 - B. suffice; operational
 - C. agenda; transact
 - D. deficient; petrified
 - E. cooperate; transact
16. There was a(n) _____ with Tim's computer, and he lost all of his files.
- A. affection
 - B. facsimile
 - C. agenda
 - D. operational
 - E. malfunction
17. Melody's _____ was completely full and left her with little time to relax.
- A. facsimile
 - B. coagulate
 - C. agenda
 - D. affection
 - E. malfunction